

WINSTON-SALEM STATE UNIVERSITY NATIONAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

ALUMNI HALL OF DISTINCTION NOMINATION FORM

Introduction

The Winston-Salem State University National Alumni Association is a non-profit organization designed to promote and support the university. The ALUMNI HALL OF DISTINCTION will highlight the contributions of alumni to the university, their professional careers and their communities.

To this end, the specific purposes of the Alumni Hall of Distinction are as follows:

- To recognize and honor alumni whose achievements since graduation have contributed to the National Alumni Association and have brought positive recognition to the university.
- To recognize and honor others who through continuous support and interest, have had a significant impact on the National Alumni Association and Winston-Salem State University.
- Persons being nominated for induction into the Alumni Hall of Distinction must have rendered meritorious service to the National Alumni Association, its affiliated chapters across the country and/or the university.
- Nominees will be listed with the Nominations Committee of the Alumni Hall of Distinction for a period not to exceed two years. Any nomination submitted year one and not selected, maybe amended and resubmitted by deadline year two.
- If an individual has not been inducted during this two year period, his/her name will be removed from the active list and must be re-nominated for future consideration.
